This Document Relates To:	)))
Case Nos. 08-4966 SC, 08-5027 SC and 08-5273 SC	))))

If you purchased Cadence Design Systems, Inc. (“Cadence” or the “Company”)¹ common stock, put and call options, 1.375% Notes due December 15, 2011, and/or 1.5% Notes due December 15, 2013 (collectively, “Cadence Publicly Traded Securities”) during the period from April 23, 2008 to December 10, 2008, inclusive (the “Class Period”) and are not otherwise excluded from the Class (see Question 6 below), you could get a payment from a class action settlement.

Settlement Fund: $38,000,000 in cash plus any interest earned. Your recovery will depend on the timing of your purchases and sales of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities during the Class Period. Based on the information currently available to Lead Plaintiff and the analysis performed by its damage consultants, it is estimated that if Class Members submit claims for 100% of the shares eligible for distribution under the Plan of Allocation (described below), the estimated average distribution per share of common stock will be approximately $0.19 before deduction of Court-approved fees and expenses, including the cost of notifying Members of the Class and settlement administration and any attorneys' fees and expenses awarded by the Court to counsel for the Lead Plaintiff. Historically, actual claims rates are less than 100%, which result in higher distributions per share. A Class Member's actual recovery will be a proportion of the Net Settlement Fund determined by that claimant's recognized claim as compared to the total recognized claims of all Class Members who submit valid Proof of Claim and Release forms ("Proof of Claim").

If the Case Had Not Settled: Continuing with the case could have resulted in loss at summary judgment, trial or on appeal. The two sides vigorously disagree on both liability and the amount of money that could have been won if Lead Plaintiff prevailed at trial. The parties disagree about: (1) the method for determining whether the price of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities was artificially inflated during the relevant period; (2) whether there was any such inflation and the amount of any such alleged inflation; (3) that there was any wrongdoing on the part of Defendants; (4) the extent that various facts alleged by Lead Plaintiff influenced the trading price of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities during the Class Period; and (5) whether the facts alleged were material, false, misleading or otherwise actionable under the federal securities laws.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this notice package?

You or someone in your family may have purchased Cadence common stock, put and call options, 1.375% Notes due December 15, 2011, and/or 1.5% Notes due December 15, 2013 between April 23, 2008 and December 10, 2008, inclusive.

The Court directed that you be sent this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves it and after any objections or appeals (if there are any) are resolved, the Claims Administrator appointed by the Court will make the payments that the settlement allows.

This package explains the lawsuit, the settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court, Northern District of California, and the case is known as In re Cadence Design Systems, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. C-08-4966 SC. The entity that leads the Litigation, Alaska Electrical Pension Fund, is called the Lead Plaintiff and the company and the individuals it sued are called Defendants.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

This Litigation alleges that Cadence and certain of its executives violated the federal securities laws by engaging in a scheme to manage revenue and earnings, and to misrepresent and conceal the Company's true financial and business condition. Lead Plaintiff alleges that when Defendants disclosed the truth about the Company's financial results, Class Members suffered damages as a result of the decline in the price of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities.

Defendants deny all of Lead Plaintiff's allegations and further deny that they did anything wrong. Defendants also deny that Lead Plaintiff or the Class suffered damages or that the price of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities was artificially inflated by reasons of alleged misrepresentations, non-disclosures or otherwise.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case, the Court-appointed the Alaska Electrical Pension Fund as Lead Plaintiff), sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people and/or entities are called a class or class members. One judge – in this case, United States District Court Judge Samuel Conti – resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Lead Plaintiff or Defendants. Instead, the lawyers for both sides of the lawsuit have negotiated a settlement, with the assistance of a former United States Magistrate Judge, that they believe is in the best interests of their respective clients. The settlement allows both sides to avoid the risks and cost of lengthy and uncertain litigation and the uncertainty of a trial and appeals, and permits Class Members to be compensated without further delay. The Lead Plaintiff and its attorneys think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

WHO GETS MONEY FROM THE SETTLEMENT

To see if you will get money from this settlement, you first have to determine if you are a Class Member.

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

The Class includes all Persons who purchased Cadence Publicly Traded Securities between April 23, 2008 and December 10, 2008, inclusive.

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Class?

Yes. Excluded from the Class are Defendants, members of the immediate families of the Individual Defendants, the directors, officers, subsidiaries, and affiliates of Cadence, any person, firm, trust, corporation, officer, director or other individual or entity in which any Defendant has a controlling interest, and the legal representatives, affiliates, heirs, successors-in-interest or assigns of any such excluded person. Also excluded from the Class are those Persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Class pursuant to this Notice.

7. I'm still not sure if I am included.

If you still are not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. You can call 1-877-246-9902 or visit www.gilardi.com for more information; or, you can call Rick Nelson at 1-800-449-4900 for more information; or, you can fill out and return the Proof of Claim described in Question 10 to see if you qualify.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU GET

8. What does the settlement provide?

Cadence has agreed to pay or cause to be paid $38,000,000 in cash, plus interest (the "Settlement Fund"). The Settlement Fund, plus interest earned from the date it is established, less costs, fees, and expenses (the "Net Settlement Fund"), will be divided among all eligible Class Members who send in valid Proofs of Claim ("Authorized Claimants"). Costs, fees, and expenses include Court-approved attorneys' fees and expenses, the costs of notifying Class Members, including the costs of printing and mailing this Notice and the cost of publishing newspaper notice, the costs of claims administration, and taxes on the Settlement Fund.

9. How much will my payment be?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will depend on the number of valid Proofs of Claim that Class Members send in and how many Cadence Publicly Traded Securities you purchased during the relevant period and when you bought and sold them.

For purposes of determining the amount an Authorized Claimant may recover under the Plan of Allocation, Lead Plaintiff's counsel conferred with their damage consultants and the Plan of Allocation reflects an assessment of damages that they believe could have been recovered had Lead Plaintiff prevailed at trial.

In the unlikely event there are sufficient funds in the Net Settlement Fund, each Authorized Claimant will receive an amount equal to the Authorized Claimant's claim, as defined below. If, however, the amount in the Net Settlement Fund is not sufficient to permit payment of the total claim of each Authorized Claimant, then each Authorized Claimant shall be paid the percentage of the Net Settlement Fund that each Authorized Claimant's claim bears to the total of the claims of all Authorized Claimants. Payment in this manner shall be deemed conclusive against all Authorized Claimants.

A "Claim" will be calculated as follows:

The allocation below is based on the following price declines as well as the statutory PSLRA 90-day look-back amount of $3.80:

October 23, 2008 Price Decline:	$1.10
December 11, 2008 Price Decline:	$0.89

- If retained at the end of December 10, 2008 and sold before March 11, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $1.99 (October 23, 2008 and December 11, 2008 Price Declines), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price, or (iii) the difference between the purchase price per share and the average closing price per share up to the date of sale as set forth in the table below.

- If retained at the end of December 10, 2008 and sold before March 11, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $0.89 (December 11, 2008 Price Decline), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price, or (iii) the difference between the purchase price per share and the average closing price per share up to the date of sale as set forth in the table below.
- If retained, or sold, on or after March 11, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $1.99 (October 23, 2008 and December 11, 2008 Price Declines), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price per share and $3.80 per share.

For Class Members who held Cadence Publicly Traded Securities at the beginning of the Class Period or made multiple purchases or sales during the Class Period, the first-in, first-out (“FIFO”) method will be applied to such holdings, purchases, and sales for purposes of calculating a claim. Under the FIFO method, sales of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities during the Class Period will be matched against the same type of security, in chronological order, first against securities held at the beginning of the Class Period. The remaining sales of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities during the Class Period will then be matched, in chronological order, against like Cadence Publicly Traded Securities purchased during the Class Period.

An Authorized Claimant will be eligible to receive a distribution from the Net Settlement Fund only if a Class Member had a net loss, after all profits from transactions in Cadence Publicly Traded Securities during the Class Period are subtracted from all losses. However, the proceeds from sales of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities which have been matched against Cadence Publicly Traded Securities held at the beginning of the Class Period will not be used in the calculation of such net loss.

The Court has reserved jurisdiction to allow, disallow or adjust the claim of any Class Member on equitable grounds.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation set forth above shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No Person shall have any claim against Lead Plaintiff, any Plaintiffs’ counsel, any claims administrator or other Person designated by Lead Plaintiff’s counsel or Defendants and/or the Related Parties and/or the Released Persons and/or their counsel based on distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation and the settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court. All Class Members who fail to complete and file a valid and timely Proof of Claim shall be barred from participating in distributions from the Net Settlement Fund (unless otherwise ordered by the Court), but otherwise shall be bound by all of the terms of the Stipulation, including the terms of any judgment entered and the releases given.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT – SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

10. How will I get a payment?

To qualify for a payment, you must send in a Proof of Claim. A Proof of Claim is enclosed with this Notice. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, include all the documents the form asks for, sign it, and mail it in the enclosed envelope postmarked no later than March 1, 2012.

11. When would I get my payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on February 24, 2012, at 10:00 a.m., to decide whether to approve the settlement. If Judge Conti approves the settlement, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain whether these appeals can be resolved favorably, and resolving them can take time, perhaps more than a year. It also takes time for all the claim forms to be processed. If there are no appeals and depending on the number of claims submitted, the Claims Administrator could distribute the Net Settlement Fund as early as nine months after the fairness hearing. Please be patient.

12. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you are staying in the Class, and that means that you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the same issues in this case or about issues that could have been asserted in this case. It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you and you will release your Released Claims in this case against the Released Persons. "Released Claims" means any and all claims, debts, demands, controversies, obligations, losses, rights or causes of action or liabilities of any kind or nature whatsoever (including, but not limited to, any claims for damages (whether compensatory, special, incidental, consequential, punitive, exemplary or otherwise), injunctive relief, declaratory relief, rescission or rescissionary damages, interest, attorneys' fees, expert or consulting fees, costs, expenses, or any other form of legal or equitable relief whatsoever), whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent, suspected or unsuspected, concealed or hidden, accrued or un-accrued, liquidated or un-liquidated, at law or in equity, matured or un-matured, whether class or individual in nature, including Unknown Claims, that (i) have been asserted in this Litigation by the Class Members or any of them against any of the Released Persons, or (ii) could have been asserted in the Litigation or any other forum by the Class Members or any of them against any of the Released Persons which arise out of or are based upon or related in any way to the allegations, transactions, facts, matters or occurrences, representations or omissions involved, set forth, or referred to in the Litigation, including, without limitation, statements or omissions regarding the Company's financial results, accounting policies or practices, results of operations or internal controls, and that relate to the purchase of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities during the Class Period. Released Claims do not include any derivative claims, which are the subject of a separate stipulation of settlement or claims to enforce this settlement.

"Unknown Claims" means any Released Claims which Lead Plaintiff or any Class Member do not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of the Released Persons which, if known by him, her, or it, might have affected his, her, or its settlement with and release of the Released Persons, or might have affected his, her, or its decisions with respect to this settlement. With respect to any and all Released Claims, the Parties stipulated and agreed that, upon the Effective Date, Lead Plaintiff shall expressly waive and relinquish, and each of the Class Members shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived and relinquished, the provisions, rights, and benefits of California Civil Code §1542, which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

Lead Plaintiff acknowledges, and the Class Members shall be deemed by operation of the Judgment to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for and a key element of the settlement of which this release is a part.

"Released Persons" means each and all of the Defendants and their past or present directors, officers, employees, partners, insurers, co-insurers, reinsurers, controlling shareholders, attorneys, accountants or auditors, personal or legal representatives, predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, joint ventures, assigns, spouses, heirs, executors, estates, administrators, related or affiliated entities, any entity in which a Defendant has a controlling interest, any members of any Individual Defendant's immediate family, or any trust of which any Individual Defendant is the settlor or which is for the benefit of any Individual Defendant's family.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a payment from this settlement, but you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue the Defendants on your own about the same issues in this case, then you must take steps to get out of the Class. This is called excluding yourself or is sometimes referred to as opting out of the Class.

13. How do I get out of the Class?

To exclude yourself from the Class, you must send a letter by mail stating that you want to be excluded from In re Cadence Design Systems, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. C-08-4966 SC. You must include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, the number of shares of Cadence common stock and/or other Cadence Publicly Traded Securities you purchased and sold between April 23, 2008 and December 10, 2008, inclusive, and the dates and prices of such purchases and sales, and the price paid or received for each such purchase or sale. You must mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than February 2, 2012 to:

Cadence Securities Litigation
Claims Administrator
c/o Gilardi & Co. LLC
P.O. Box 8040
San Rafael, CA 94912-8040

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone or by e-mail. If you ask to be excluded, you are not eligible to get any settlement payment, and you cannot object to the settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit.

14. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue Defendants for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendants for the claims that this settlement resolves. Remember, the exclusion deadline is February 2, 2012.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not send in a Proof of Claim to ask for any money. Once you exclude yourself, you will receive no cash payment even if you also submit a Proof of Claim.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

16. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed the law firm of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP to represent you and other Class Members. These lawyers are called Lead Counsel. These lawyers will apply to the Court for payment from the Settlement Fund; you will not otherwise be charged for their work. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

17. How will the lawyers be paid?

At the fairness hearing, Lead Plaintiff's counsel will request the Court to award attorneys' fees of 25% of the Settlement Fund and for expenses up to $800,000, which were incurred in connection with the Litigation. If awarded, the cost would be $0.05 per share. This compensation will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Members are not personally liable for any such fees or expenses. To date, Lead Plaintiff's counsel have not received any payment for their services in conducting this Litigation on behalf of the Lead Plaintiff and the Class, nor have counsel been paid for their expenses. The fee requested will compensate Lead Plaintiff's counsel for their work in achieving the Settlement Fund and is well within the range of fees awarded to class counsel under similar circumstances in other cases of this type. The Court may award less than this amount.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, or Lead Plaintiff's counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

18. How do I tell the Court that I do not like the settlement?

If you are a Class Member (and you have not excluded yourself), you can object to the settlement, the request for attorneys' fees and expenses, or the Plan of Allocation if you do not like any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve the settlement, the request for attorneys' fees and expenses, or the Plan of Allocation. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a signed letter saying that you object to the proposed settlement in In re Cadence Design Systems, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. C-08-4966 SC. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, the number of shares of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities purchased between April 23, 2008 and December 10, 2008, inclusive, and the reasons you object to the settlement, the requested attorneys' fees and expenses, or the Plan of Allocation. Any such objection must be mailed or delivered such that it is received by each of the following no later than February 2, 2012:

Court:

Clerk of the Court
United States District Court
Northern District of California
450 Golden Gate Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94102

Lead Plaintiff's counsel:

ROBBINS GELLER RUDMAN & DOWD LLP
JEFFREY D. LIGHT
655 West Broadway, Suite 1900
San Diego, CA 92101

Defendants' counsel:

GIBSON, DUNN & CRUTCHER LLP
ETHAN D. DETTMER
555 Mission Street, Suite 3000
San Francisco, CA 94105

19. What is the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like something about the proposed settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer applies to you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may attend, but you do not have to.

20. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a hearing at 10:00 a.m., on February 24, 2012, at the United States District Court, Northern District of California, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court will also decide whether to approve the payment of fees and expenses to Lead Plaintiff's counsel, including the Plan of Allocation. We do not know how long the hearing will take or whether the Court will make its decision on the day of the hearing or sometime later.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Lead Plaintiff's counsel will answer questions Judge Conti may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but you are not required to do so.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the hearing. To do so, you must send a letter saying that it is your intention to appear in In re Cadence Design Systems, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. C-08-4966 SC. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, and the number of Cadence Publicly Traded Securities purchased between April 23, 2008 and December 10, 2008, inclusive. Your notice of intention to appear must be received no later than February 2, 2012 by the Clerk of the Court, Lead Plaintiff's counsel, and Defendants' counsel, at the addresses listed in Question 18. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the Class.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

23. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will get no money from this settlement. But, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the same issues in this case.
