

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

Civil Action No. 1:11-cv-02827-JLK

BURT WESTON, on Behalf of Himself and All Others Similarly Situated, Plaintiff,

v.

CIBER, INC.,
DAVID C. PETERSCHMIDT,
CLAUDE J. PUMILIA and
PETER H. CHEESBROUGH,
Defendants.

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF SETTLEMENT

IF YOU PURCHASED OR OTHERWISE ACQUIRED CIBER, INC. ("CIBER") COMMON STOCK BETWEEN DECEMBER 15, 2010 AND AUGUST 3, 2011, INCLUSIVE, YOU COULD RECEIVE A PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

A federal court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Security and Time Period: Ciber common stock (CUSIP No. 17163B102) purchased or acquired between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive.

Settlement Fund: $3,000,000 in cash. Your recovery will depend on the number of shares of Ciber common stock you purchased or acquired between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, and the timing of your purchases and any sales. If claims are submitted for 100% of the eligible shares of Ciber common stock, the estimated average recovery per share of common stock will be approximately $0.34 before deduction of Court-approved fees and expenses. The actual amount per share you could receive will depend on a number of factors that are explained in the Plan of Allocation contained in Question 9 below.

Settlement Class: The Court has preliminarily certified a Settlement Class of all purchasers or acquirers of Ciber common stock between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, and who were allegedly damaged thereby. Excluded from the Settlement Class are Defendants; any entity in which any Defendant has or had a controlling interest or that is a parent or subsidiary or is controlled by any Defendant; Defendants' officers and directors, including any person who was an officer or director during the Settlement Class Period; Defendants' affiliates, legal representatives, heirs, predecessors, successors or assigns; and members of the Individual Defendants' immediate families. Also excluded from the Settlement Class are those Persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class pursuant to this Notice.

Reasons for Settlement: Avoids the costs and risks associated with continued litigation, including the danger of no recovery, and provides a benefit to the Settlement Class now.

If the Case Had Not Settled: The Settlement must be compared to the risk of no recovery after contested motions, trial, and likely appeals. A trial is a risky proposition and Lead Plaintiffs might not have prevailed. The claims in this case involve numerous complex legal and factual issues that would require extensive and costly discovery, expert testimony, and related litigation activities. Among the many key issues about which the two sides do not agree are: (1) whether any of the Defendants violated the securities laws or otherwise engaged in any wrongdoing; (2) whether the facts alleged by the Lead Plaintiffs were material, false, misleading or otherwise actionable under the securities laws; (3) whether the various facts alleged by the Lead Plaintiffs influenced the trading price of Ciber common stock during the relevant period; (4) the method for determining whether the price of Ciber common stock was artificially inflated during the relevant period; (5) the amount (if any) of such inflation; and (6) the amount of damages (if any) that could be recovered at trial.

Attorneys' Fees and Expenses: Lead Counsel have not received any payment for their work investigating the facts, conducting this litigation, and negotiating the Settlement on behalf of Lead Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class. Lead Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys' fees not to exceed 25% of the Settlement Fund and expenses not to exceed $85,000 to be paid from the Settlement Fund. If the above amounts are requested and approved by the Court, the average cost per share of common stock will be approximately $0.09, making the estimated average recovery per share after fees and expenses $0.25 if claims are submitted for 100% of the eligible shares of Ciber common stock.

Deadlines:

Submit Claim: April 9, 2014
Request Exclusion: March 14, 2014
File Objection: March 14, 2014

Court Hearing on Fairness of Settlement: April 4, 2014, at 10:00 a.m.¹

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

SUBMIT A CLAIM	The only way to receive a payment.
OBJECT	You may write to the Court if you do not like this Settlement.
GO TO A HEARING	You may ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the Settlement.
DO NOTHING	Receive no payment.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF	Receive no payment. This is the only option that could allow you to participate in another lawsuit against the Defendants relating to the claims being released in this case.

- These rights and options — and the deadlines to exercise them — are explained in this Notice.
- The Court in charge of this case must decide whether to approve the Settlement. Payments will be made if the Court approves the Settlement and, if there are any appeals, after appeals are resolved. Please be patient.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why Did I Receive This Notice Package?

You or someone in your family may have purchased or acquired Ciber common stock between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive.

The Court sent you this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the Settlement. If the Court approves the Settlement and after any objections or appeals are resolved, the Claims Administrator appointed by the Court will make the payments that the Settlement allows.

This package explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

¹ The Court may change this date to a later date and/or time without further written notice to you. However, any different date or time will be posted on the Claims Administrator's website: www.gilardi.com/ciber. If you plan to attend the hearing, please check to make sure the date or time has not changed.

The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, and the case is known as Weston v. Ciber, Inc., et al., No. 1:11-cv-02827-JLK. The individual and entity that sued are called the Lead Plaintiffs, and the company and the individuals they sued, Ciber, David C. Peterschmidt, Claude J. Pumilia, and Peter H. Cheesbrough, are called the Defendants.

2. What Is This Lawsuit About?

This case was brought as a class action alleging that Defendants made false and misleading statements and omissions between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, about Ciber's fixed-price contracts, earnings guidance, and internal controls. The Lead Plaintiffs assert that the Defendants misrepresented Ciber's exposure to significant financial losses in 2011 related to problematic fixed-price legacy contracts in Ciber's North America and Enterprise Resource Planning Divisions. Lead Plaintiffs further alleged that Defendants misrepresented the effectiveness of Ciber's internal controls, which allegedly caused Defendants to suspend Ciber's 2011 earning guidance. As Lead Plaintiffs alleged, as a result, that Ciber recognized a $13.4 million reduction in revenue in 2011 related to a percentage-of-completion adjustments on the problematic contracts. Lead Plaintiffs alleged that as a result of these false statements and omissions, the market price of Ciber's common stock was artificially and improperly inflated between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, and that Settlement Class Members overpaid for Ciber common stock purchased during this time period. Defendants have denied and continue to deny each and every one of Lead Plaintiffs' allegations, including that: Defendants made any false statements, misrepresentations, or omissions regarding fixed-price contracts, earnings, or internal controls; that Defendants did anything wrong at all; that the market price of Ciber's common stock was artificially or improperly inflated between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011; and that Members of the Settlement Class were damaged in any way whatsoever.

3. Why Is This a Class Action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case the Court-appointed Lead Plaintiffs Burt H. Weston III and the City of Roseville Employees' Retirement System) sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. Here, all these people are called the Settlement Class or Settlement Class Members. One court resolves the issues for all Settlement Class Members, except for those who timely and validly exclude themselves from the Settlement Class. Senior United States District Court Judge John L. Kane is in charge of this class action.

4. Why Is There a Settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Lead Plaintiffs or Defendants. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. By doing so, they avoid the cost and uncertainty of a trial, and eligible Settlement Class Members who submit valid claims will receive compensation. It is the opinion of the Lead Plaintiffs and their attorneys that the Settlement is in the best interests of all Settlement Class Members.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

To see if you will receive money from this Settlement, you first have to determine if you are a Settlement Class Member.

5. How Do I Know if I Am Part of the Settlement?

The Settlement Class includes all purchasers or acquirers of Ciber common stock during the Settlement Class Period, which is between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, and who were allegedly damaged thereby.

6. What Are the Exceptions to Being Included?

You are not a Settlement Class Member if you are a Defendant; an entity in which any Defendant has or had a controlling interest or that is a parent or subsidiary or is controlled by any Defendant; a Defendant's officer or director, including any person who was an officer or director of Ciber during the Settlement Class Period; a Defendant's affiliate, legal representative, heir, predecessor, successor or assign; or a member of an Individual Defendant's immediate family. You are also not a Settlement Class Member if you timely and validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class pursuant to this Notice.

If you sold Ciber common stock during the Settlement Class Period, that alone does not make you a Settlement Class Member. You are a Settlement Class Member only if you purchased or otherwise acquired Ciber common stock during the Settlement Class Period.

7. I'm Still Not Sure if I Am Included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. You can call Rick Nelson of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP at 800/449-4900 for more information. Or you can fill out and return the claim form described in Question 10, to see if you qualify.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU GET

8. What Does the Settlement Provide?

Defendants have agreed to pay $3,000,000 in cash. The balance of this fund after payment of Court-approved attorneys' fees and expenses and the costs of claims administration, including the costs of printing and mailing this Notice and the cost of publishing newspaper notice (the "Net Settlement Fund") will be divided among all eligible Settlement Class Members who send in valid claim forms.

9. How Much Will My Payment Be?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will depend on the number of valid claim forms that Settlement Class Members send in and the number of shares of Ciber common stock you purchased or acquired during the relevant period and when you bought and sold them. As discussed above in answer to Question 2, Lead Plaintiffs allege that, during the Settlement Class Period, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose certain facts about Ciber's business and financial condition. Lead Plaintiffs assert that, as a result, the price of Ciber common stock was "artificially inflated" during the Settlement Class Period and Settlement Class Members paid more for Ciber common stock than they would have if the truth was known. As noted above, Defendants deny each and every one of these allegations.

The allocation below is based on the following price decline per share as well as the statutory PSLRA 90-day look-back amount of $3.27 per share:

August 3, 2011 Price Decline:	$1.22
-------------------------------	--------

For shares of Ciber common stock purchased or acquired on or between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, the recovery per share shall be as follows:

- (a) If sold on or before August 2, 2011, the claim per share is zero.
- (b) If sold between August 3, 2011 and November 1, 2011, the claim per share shall be the least of: (i) $1.22 (August 3, 2011 Price Decline); (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price; or (iii) the difference between the purchase price per share and the average closing price per share up to the date of the sale as set forth in the table below; and
- (c) If sold after November 1, 2011 or still retained, the claim per share shall be the lesser of: (i) $1.22 (August 3, 2011 Price Decline); or (ii) the difference between the purchase price per share and $3.27 per share.

For shares of Ciber common stock purchased or acquired on August 3, 2011, the claim per share shall be zero.

The date of purchase or sale is the “contract” or “trade” date as distinguished from the “settlement” date.

For Settlement Class Members who made multiple purchases, acquisitions or sales during the Settlement Class Period, the first-in, first-out (“FIFO”) method will be applied to such holdings, purchases, acquisitions and sales for purposes of calculating a claim. Under the FIFO method, sales of common stock during the Settlement Class Period will be matched, in chronological order, against common stock purchased or acquired during the Settlement Class Period.

A Settlement Class Member will be eligible to receive a distribution from the Net Settlement Fund only if a Settlement Class Member had a net loss. All gains and losses (as calculated under the above plan) will be combined and thereafter netted against each other. In addition, after the first distribution, no subsequent distribution will be made unless the amount of the check is at least $10.00.

HOW YOU OBTAIN A PAYMENT – SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

10. How Will I Obtain a Payment?

To qualify for payment, you must be an eligible Settlement Class Member, send in a timely and valid claim form, and properly document your claim as requested in the claim form. A claim form is enclosed with this Notice. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, include all the documents the form asks for, sign it, and mail or submit it online no later than April 9, 2014. The claim form may be submitted online at: www.gilardi.com/ciber.

11. When Will I Receive My Payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on April 4, 2014, at 10:00 a.m., to decide whether to approve the Settlement. If Judge Kane approves the Settlement, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain whether these appeals can be resolved, and resolving them can take time, perhaps several years. Everyone who sends in a claim form will be informed of the determination with respect to their claim. Please be patient.

12. What Am I Giving Up to Receive a Payment or Stay in the Settlement Class?

Unless you timely and validly exclude yourself, you are a Member of the Settlement Class, and that means that you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the Released Claims in this case. It also means that all of the Court’s orders will apply to you and legally bind you, and you will release your claims in this case against the Defendants. The terms of the release are included in the claim form that is enclosed.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a payment from this Settlement, but you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue the Defendants on your own for the Released Claims in this case, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement Class. This is called excluding yourself, or is sometimes referred to as opting out of the Settlement Class.

13. How Do I Get Out of the Settlement Class?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement Class you must send a letter by mail stating that you want to be excluded from Weston v. Ciber, Inc., et al., No. 1:11-cv-02827-JLK. You must include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, and the number of shares of Ciber common stock you purchased or acquired between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, and the dates of your purchases, acquisitions and any sales. You must mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than March 14, 2014, to:

Ciber Securities Litigation
Claims Administrator
c/o Gilardi & Co. LLC
P.O. Box 8040
San Rafael, CA 94912-8040

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone or by e-mail. If you ask to be excluded, you are not eligible to receive any settlement payment, and you cannot object to the Settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit.

14. If I Do Not Exclude Myself, Can I Sue the Defendants for the Same Thing Later?

No. Unless you timely and validly exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Defendants for the Released Claims in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit against any of the Defendants, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. Remember, the exclusion deadline is March 14, 2014.

15. If I Exclude Myself, Can I Receive Money from This Settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not send in a claim form.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

16. Do I Have a Lawyer in This Case?

The Court appointed the law firms of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP and Robbins Umeda LLP (n/k/a Robbins Arroyo LLP) to represent you and other Settlement Class Members. These lawyers are called Lead Counsel. You will not be directly charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

17. How Will the Lawyers Be Paid?

Lead Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys' fees of up to 25% of the Settlement Fund and for expenses up to $85,000, plus interest that is incurred. Such sums as may be approved by the Court will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Settlement Class Members are not personally liable for any such fees or expenses.

The attorneys' fees and expenses requested will be the only payment to Lead Counsel for their efforts in achieving this Settlement and for their risk in undertaking this representation on a wholly contingent basis. Lead Counsel have committed significant time and expenses in litigating this case for the benefit of the Settlement Class. To date, Lead Counsel have not been paid for their services in conducting this litigation on behalf of the Lead Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class, nor for their expenses. The fees requested will compensate Lead Counsel for their work in achieving the Settlement Fund. The Court will decide what is a reasonable fee award and may award less than the amount requested by Lead Counsel.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the Settlement or some part of it.

18. How Do I Tell the Court that I Do Not Like the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can object to the Settlement if you do not like any part of it, including the Plan of Allocation. You can state the reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a letter saying that you object to the Settlement in Weston v. Ciber, Inc., et al., No. 1:11-cv-02827-JLK. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, the number of shares of Ciber common stock you purchased, acquired and sold between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive, the dates of such purchases or acquisitions, or sales of such shares, and the reasons you object. Any objection must be mailed or delivered such that it is received by each of the following no later than March 14, 2014:

19. What's the Difference Between Objecting and Excluding?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you do not have to.

20. When and Where Will the Court Decide Whether to Approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a fairness hearing at 10:00 a.m., on April 4, 2014, at the Alfred A. Arraj United States Courthouse, 901 19th Street, Denver, Colorado. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.² The Court may move the date or time of the fairness hearing to a later date or time without further written notice to you. If the date or time of the fairness hearing is changed the new date or time will be posted at www.gilardi.com/ciber. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. Judge Kane will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court will also consider how much to pay to Lead Plaintiffs' counsel. The Court may decide these issues at the hearing or take them under consideration. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

21. Do I Have to Come to the Hearing?

No. Lead Counsel will answer any questions Judge Kane may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you submitted your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it is not necessary.

22. May I Speak at the Hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the fairness hearing. To do so, you must send a letter saying that it is your intention to appear in Weston v. Ciber, Inc., et al., No. 1:11-cv-02827-JLK. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, and the number of shares of Ciber common stock you purchased or acquired between December 15, 2010 and August 3, 2011, inclusive. Your notice of intention to appear must be received no later than March 14, 2014, by the Clerk of the Court, Lead Counsel, and Defendants' counsel, at the four addresses listed in Question 18. If you want to present evidence or witnesses, you must disclose that information and explain it in your letter. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class.

² The papers in support of approval of the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and Lead Plaintiffs' counsel's fee and expense application will be submitted to the Court no later than February 28, 2014.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

23. What Happens if I Do Nothing at All?

If you do nothing, you will be a Settlement Class Member. However, you will not receive any money from this Settlement unless you submit a claim form. Unless you exclude yourself, you won't be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the Released Claims in this case.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

24. Are There More Details About the Settlement?

This Notice summarizes the proposed Settlement. More details are in the Stipulation of Settlement, dated as of November 26, 2013. You can obtain a copy of the Stipulation of Settlement by going to www.gilardi.com/ciber or www.rgrdlaw.com, or by writing to Rick Nelson, c/o Shareholder Relations, Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP, 655 West Broadway, Suite 1900, San Diego, CA 92101, or from the Clerk's office at the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, 901 19th Street, Denver, Colorado, during regular business hours.
